

Day of the Dead Oral Presentation Rubric

Content	Comprehensibility	Correctness of Expression	Use of Spanish
5 Lots of details about honoree. Details included about who your honoree is, what s/he is like, what s/he does and why s/he is important to you.	5 Presentation is easy to understand. Audience learns a lot about your honoree.	5 Few grammar mistakes.	3 Entirely in Spanish. Language flows smoothly. Good pronunciation. Good delivery. Good use of expression.
3 Some details about honoree. Some detail included about who your honoree is, what s/he is like, what s/he does and why s/he is important to you.	3 Presentation is fairly easy to follow, but there are a few rough spots. Sometimes your meaning is unclear.	3 Mostly correct, but some grammar errors.	2 Entirely in Spanish. Presentation is relatively fluid. Some pronunciation errors. Some vocal expression.
1 Little information shared about who your honoree is, what s/he is like, what s/he does and why s/he is important to you.	1 Presentation is difficult to follow. Meaning is often unclear.	1 Significant errors in usage or grammar.	1 You resorted to English. Many pronunciation errors. Monotone.